DETAILED ACTION

Acknowledgment

1. This Office Action is responsive to the Amendment filed on 7/11/2007.

Accordingly, claims 1-4, 6-15 and 17-22 are pending in this application.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. Claims 1, 3, 4, 6, 7, 11, 12, 14, 15, 17, 18 and 22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Nomura (US 7,027,482).

Regarding claims 1, 3, 4, 6, 7, 11, 12, 14, 15, 17, 18 and 22, Nomura, as shown in figures 1, 4 and 5, teaches a method and apparatus for controlling a multi-carrier amplifier (7) comprising generating an aggregate scaling factor (output of 4) based on the time-average values of the power level (3, 4) and the scaling factor (output of 4) is used to control the amplifier (7). See also column 1, line 50 to column 2, line 14 and column 2, line 34 to column 5, line 23.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

6. Claims 10 and 21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Nomura (US 7,027,482).

Regarding claims 10 and 21, Nomura teaches all subject matter claimed except for the specific averaging times as specified. However, it is just a matter of selecting the different times (see fig. 2 of Nomura) and therefor, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the system of Nomura for selecting different averaging times as claimed since such selection of times would not involve any inventive feature from the invention of Nomura.

Allowable Subject Matter

7. Claims 2, 8, 9, 13, 19 and 20 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Arguments

8. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1, 6, 7, 11, 12, 17, 18 and 22 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion
